5. Data security and data protection, communication by email

inventicsDx GmbH uses appropriate technical and organisational measures to prevent unauthorised access and disclosure and to ensure that personal data is accurate and is used lawfully. Nevertheless, no electronic communication is 100% secure, which means that all data and information you provide to inventicsDx GmbH may still be obtained by third parties by gathering such data and information unlawfully. inventicsDx GmbH may not be held responsible or liable for any errors occurring and/or any incidents of unauthorised access by third parties during data transmission.

Likewise, we are unable to ensure that data is 100% secure in communications by email. Therefore, we recommend you to communicate by post any information that must be treated with strict confidentiality.

6. SSL/TLS encryption

Our website uses SSL/TLS encryption (transfer encryption) for security reasons and to ensure that any confidential content you send to us as the operator of the website is transferred securely. SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) and its predecessor TLS (Transport Layer Security) is a recognised network security protocol used to transfer data securely. You can recognise an encrypted connection by checking whether the address line of the browser switches from "http://" to "https://" and also by the appearance of the lock icon in the browser line.

7. Use of Google Analytics

On our website, we use Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, CA 94043, United States of America ("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies, i.e. text files that are stored on your computer and enable analysis of your use of the website. The information generated by the cookies about your use of the website will usually be transferred to and stored by Google on servers located in the United States. For your protection, we have activated the IP anonymisation function on our website. This will cause Google to shorten your IP address within member states of the European Union or other states party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area prior to sending it to the United States.

Under the data processing agreement that the operator of this website has concluded with Google, Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide other services related to your use of the website and internet usage to the website operator.

For those exceptional cases where personal data is transferred to the United States, Google is certified under the EU-US Privacy Shield. For additional information, please visit https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/71105316?hl=en&ref_topic=2919631 or <https://www.privacyshield.gov/EU-US-Framework>.

When you visit our website, we will ask for your consent to use cookies other than those required to operate the website.

You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website.

In addition, you may block the transmission of the data collected by the cookie (including your IP address) to Google by installing a browser plugin. You can download the browser plugin from the following website: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>. 8. References and links

Our website also includes third-party content. These services can be used only if the providers of such content (third-party provider) can identify the IP address of the user. No such content can be sent to you unless your IP address has been transmitted previously. Your IP address is needed to display content. While we seek to only use content whose providers use your IP address exclusively to deliver content, we have no way of ensuring that third party providers will not store your IP address, for example, for statistical purposes. If and to the extent that we are aware of this, we will inform the users thereof.

When accessing websites to which this website has a link, you may be asked once again to provide information such as your name, address, email address, browser type, etc. This Data Privacy Statement does not apply to personal data collected, disclosed or handled by third parties.

Third-party providers may have their own terms on how to handle the collection, processing and use of personal data that may differ from the terms hereof. Therefore, we recommend you to check the websites of such third-party providers for their manner of handling personal data before you enter your personal data.
